Make your submission comments here I do not agree with proposal of Waterford Co. Council to extend its boundary into Co. Kilkenny. Historically the Suir has been the boundary between the two counties. I see no reason to change it. Kilkenny Co. Council is willing to co-operate on issues of joint interest. Therefore there is surely room for sharing of resources. The areas in question have a very strong identification with Kilkenny both on a historical and a personal level. It is foolish with so many other more pressing issues to be addressed to focus on what is a very unpopular subject.
